Hi Peter,

Thank you very much for the acknowledgement and it was a pleasure to finally meet you!

I communicated with Jonna and we will do our best to have this ready. I am happy to submit the draft through the WHO Bulletin online portal.

Best,

[REDACTED] pleasure to meet you in person in DC and well done on speaking up in the breakout groups!

I want to give you and Jonna a heads up for the WHO Bulletin paper on the GVP. Brooke is finishing off edits to make it less like the Science paper, then I'll be working on it tomorrow (Thursday) night, and Friday morning EST. I'll have finalized version with track changes, and the response to reviewers back with you by midday Friday your time.

WHO Bulletin asked for it back by Friday, but I'm sure they'll be happy to get it by Monday first thing European time. I hope getting it to you by midday Friday your time would give you and Jonna enough time to finalize, check things and for you to upload it....

Let me know what you think.

Cheers,

Peter
